The Art of Real Brewing

The beer market is ever-changing, and at Wadworth, we're proud to evolve right there beside it from our new home, the state-of-the-art Folly Road Brewhouse in Devizes.

With our Grade II listed Northgate brewery finally showing its age after an impressive run since 1885, and to meet the needs of a consistently evolving beer market, we had to move on – but before tears ruin a good pint, the story continues...

We soon began construction on our innovative Folly Road Brewhouse, embracing modern touches while never forgetting centuries of tradition. From trial brews, community engagement, taste-testing and ensuring sustainability was at the heart of every step of the journey, we're proud of this significant milestone in the rich tapestry of the history of Wadworth.

Real Brewing, Real Pubs, Real People, Real Impact - and now, our brand-new line of Folly Road craft beers poured alongside our iconic Wadworth traditional ales, ensuring we – and our pints – will be around for generations to come. Now that's a tradition worth holding on to.

Cheers!
